NATIONAL TRAIL

Count the 199 steps and get some kippers at Whitby

Whitby, like Scarborough, offers a perfect seaside experience.

- 1 Start the walk from Whitby Bridge and head east towards the Old Town.
- 2 Turn left and along Church Street and then right and up the 199 steps.
- 3 Walk past the Abbey and turn left to follow the Cleveland Way along the cliff top.
- 4 Follow the Cleveland Way for nearly 3 miles, enjoying the glorious coastline.
- 5 Turn right on the footpath to Gnipe Howe, leaving the Cleveland Way.
- 6 Turn left and along the track.
- 7 At the railway bridge go left over the stile. Follow the old Railway line to the right.
- 8 Cross the viaduct over the River Esk, with glorious views over the town and harbour.
- 9 Turn right and across the playing fields.
- 10 Before the road turn right. Follow round the playing field and down the steps under the road.
- 11 Turn right and take the track on the right. Cross the railway. Walk along the quay and back to the bridge.
